

Taliban Claim Responsibility for Kabul Attacks February 11, 2009

Statement from the Taliban Taliban Claim Responsibility for Coordinated Assaults on Gov't Targets Released on February 11, 2009

[This document is the transcript of a statement obtained by NEFA investigators on behalf of the NEFA TerrorWatch subscription service. This transcript is provided for educational and informational purposes only. On February 11, 2009, the Taliban launched a coordinated attack on the Ministry of Justice, the Directorate of Prisons, and the Ministry of Education in Kabul, killing at least 26.]

"At 10 o'clock this morning 2/11/2009, 16 mujahideen from Al-Hamzah martyrdom group in Afghanistan Islamic Emirate launched a revengeful campaign for the prisoners who were killed by the hands of the crusaders and their mercenary agents in Beltcherkhi prison during the days of the recent Eid Al-Adha. And, to guarantee the command of Amir Al-Mu'mineen, graced by God, those martyred [young men] launched broad martyrdom operations today in the capital Kabul under the leadership of Mr/Mulla Musa Kleem, in the following structure:"

"Firstly, the martyr Mulla Abdulla launched his explosive belt at the gate of Prison Affairs building located in Lub Jarr court in Khier-Khanu town in Northern Kabul, then the Martyr Hafed Omar entered the building and executed the martyrdom operation on the Generals on the 3rd floor, then the Martyr Abdul'Fattah opened fire on the security guards standing in front of the western gate of ministry of justice by the presidential palace, and he executed a martyrdom attack. And after that, Mulla Musa Kleem, Mulla Asadu'allah, Mulla Hafed Mu'thuallah, and Al-Mawlawee Ahmad entered into the ministry and controlled the ministry building, and during a vicious battle of three hours, tens of security guards and ministry employees were killed, and then those four heroes."

"And like that, the martyr Mulla Sa'ad'allah opened heavy fire on the undercover civil security guards standing with the siege around the ministry of justice by the ministry of education, and then he executed a martyrdom attack and destroyed a 'cruzeen' car that belongs to the ministry, and killed tens from its members. The operations ended successfully."

"The martyred mujahideen had light and heavy weapons, and during these operations, 8 mujahideen were martyred and 8 mujahideen went back without harm to their stations."

"And these operations are just an expressive letter to Obama and all the crusader apostates, [that] we are, with great God's victory, we will continue these attacks, and we will not let one revenge pass for one Muslim facing injustice, and [we] always answer with God's victory the commands of the great mujahid Amir Al-Mu'mineen and [we] would give our skulls in the sake of Islam and raising God's word and avenging the martyrs."

"According to the recent trusted information, during these operations, more than 100 died from the top civil and military leaders and police and security personnel, and also more than 150 others were wounded, and tens of cars were destroyed."

Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan (the Taliban)
February 11, 2009

Nine Eleven / Finding Answers (NEFA) Foundation – ©2009

No images, sound, or video from this site may be downloaded, copied or otherwise transferred for commercial rebroadcast, reproduction or any other commercial use without express written consent from the NEFA Foundation