[This document is the translation of a communiqué obtained by NEFA investigators on behalf of the NEFA TerrorWatch subscription service. This transcript is provided for educational and informational purposes only. "Abdul Gaffar al-Almani", better known as Eric Breininger, a German convert to Islam from Neuenkirchen in Saarland, traveled to Pakistan in 2007 and joined the Islamic Jihad Union (IJU).]

"The representatives of Taifatu'l Mansura Germany congratulate the German martyrs killed on April 30. From the news from this morning we learned that Selahaddin al-Turki, the leader of Elif Media, and Abdul Gaffar al-Almani who both came from Germany to participate in the Jihad were martyred. During the same fight our brothers Hizbullah and Ebu Abdullah were also killed."

"In the area of Miranşah-Mirali, on the night of April 30, the vehicle with our brothers was attacked by the Pakistani unbelievers. Selahaddin Turki was able to let the bomb in his hand explode, although he was injured and killed four unbelieving Pakistanis. After this Selahaddin Turki was killed."

"Another message from the Taifatu'l Mansura principality is that in the last ten days eight other brothers from our community were killed during the attacks. We are working to get videos of these brothers. About the brothers who were from Germany, we will post the videos on alcihad.com."

"As the responsible person from Taifatu'l Mansura for the Germany region, it is appropriate that it should be noted that in recent months a large participation for the Jihad is coming from Europe, mainly from Germany. We hope for patience from all family members of the martyrs. We want to define clearly, that we do not accept our martyrs' loss but as a win."

"After each fallen martyr pathways are being opened for non frightened members of the Islamic youth, they will resume the tasks with pride. We want to share this message with everyone, whether friend or foe."

"The occupying Kuffar (unbelievers) in Afghanistan are on the way to defeat. In contrast to their empty promises are they not moving ahead but the soldiers come deeper and deeper in crisis. In contrary the mood and the motivation of the jihadis are praiseworthy."

“When the Kuffar grieve after every lost soldier, hope the jihadis after every killed martyr to be the next martyr. We are all jihad fighters and proud about our martyrs. We ask all Muslims to pray for the jihadis and to keep the hope of the victory.”

The Victory is Allah's.
Allahuakbar (Allah is great)
