“The opposing government and its allies celebrated what they call the National Day for the Security Withdrawal from Iraqi cities to their bases, and first I say:”

“There is no dispute between the people of [religious] knowledge that if the American occupiers have a presence even in a small region in the Iraqi desert, away from all forms of life, it is a duty for every Muslim to carry Jihad against them until removing them from that region; how, and they confess that the American occupier with all his power and equipment, and the security companies with their numbers and equipment still occupy the county, and has the rights to interfere in the military, security and economic affairs, including the right of liquidation, bombing destruction, terrorism, and detention, and the right to enter and exit the country without any kind of monitoring or inspection, and the right of robbery and thievery of the country's capabilities under the header of import and export, and tax-free?”

“And, all this agreement has resulted are points of betrayal, shame and scandal, and in focusing on the lies, confusion, and forgery of history's facts, the current head of the parliament; member of the reconciliation and a main leader in the Islamic Party, came out saying: ‘today proves that the political choice [resolution] was the correct choice.’”

“And, in the beginning we say to this man and his supporters: the reconciliation front headed by the Islamic Party, and unfortunately, has played and still plays the ugliest role in the history of any cooperative group traitor to its nation, until this day.”

“The Islamic Party; leader of the reconciliation front, signed the London and Salah–ad-Deen documents, which ask the Americans to occupy the country and kill the people. Then, they solidified the occupation via their participation in the ruling Majlis led by Bremer, then they solidified the governance of [this] tyrant and put aside the Sharia of Lord of the Worlds via their participation in writing a secular constitution and voting with ‘yes’ for this constitution, then by fighting every honored person in this country, and I mean the heroic mujahideen via their formation of the awakenings. And, as the criminal Tariq al-Hashimi confessed, history will write that they were who found the awakenings in support and money. And lastly, their continuous requests to sustain the occupation for the longest possible period, then they secured for this remainder by signing the security agreement; this agreement founded the lie of national sovereignty, and we have a stand towards this day and this agreement:”

“First: the American invader did not come to Iraq to pull out from it. The Americans are occupying invaders, pushed by religious delusions and economic interests that force them to remain and continue the occupation with every possible way, and the least of these religious interests is protecting the Jewish State as an accomplishment of Torah-based interests the criminals are ambitious, and from these economic interests: petroleum as the Gulf area only has about 50% of the world’s petroleum reserve according to the Gulf Institute for Strategic Studies; this is without having any alternative to energy until this day and the increase in demand for oil by big countries like America and Britain, and 9% depletion in oil wells in the consuming countries.”

“Second: having the American occupier around in the Iraqi land with this fighting preparedness became impossible financially and militarily:”

“Financially: reports and studies confirmed that war on Iraq is the first and real reason behind the American...economic crisis, and its reflections on world countries. A receiver of the Nobel Prize confirmed that the war on Iraq expense reached $150 billion annually; the expenses for an American soldier are continuously rising as in 2008 alone, $20 billion were spent to buy better armored cars, and the expenses for psychological and physical treatment of American soldiers and their families. The collapse of the Satanic alliance for the American occupation of Iraq led to bigger spread-out of the American army and particularly after the critical allies left the battlefield and the American occupier remained alone, which forced upon it a bigger spread-out and an increase in the land that must be controlled and the aftermath of financial and military expenses.”

“Militarily: the American occupier realized that the Islamic giant does not die even if ailed, as all the stabs the traitors pointed from everywhere, and especially after the men of the Islamic State solidified with religious, military and moral steadfastness, and confused the occupier and had him lose his mind, and the war of the Islamic State against the awakenings and having the U.S. hold the responsibility of the war’s military, financial and media expenses, as well as its ability to defeat this wicked project, is a witness on the progression of work as they decided not to withdraw from Baghdad, Mosel and Diala, but after announcing the plan for the blessed harvest and the safe go-back of the falling [chopped] American heads from Iraqi cities, made the decision of leaving the cities a military necessity, and an exit from the bleeding trap they have suffered for long years, so then the security agreement occurred and a military necessity occurred as a result.”

“The appearance of an expansive strong fighting front forms a big danger against all of Kuf in Afghanistan and Pakistan, in the shadow of the Pakistani nuclear weapon, and also the Talibani weapon and the danger of the Islamic Emirate towards the American remaining in the region, after the reports have confirmed that the Emirate, in actuality, controls 80% of Afghanistan, and this requires more forces in that region, and they [Americans] are incapable of sending one soldier [to Afghanistan or Pakistan] without pulling one like him from Iraq, and any pullout from Iraq affects the existing fight in the cities and counts the soldiers for a real big danger, so the security agreement was inevitable to protect their soldiers; and that is in light of a clear European stinginess and unwillingness to send any additional forces to Pakistan and Afghanistan.”

“The military industry is in real danger in the shadow of military existence in Iraq, as the big companies have nearly bankrupted like General Motors; biggest of American companies, and it is the company that makes most American military engines for jets and ships and other machinery.”

“Also, the White House announced a halt in advancing certain kinds of jets and military projects, and accordingly the White House entered a serious discussion with Russia to deter armament and decrease the military arsenal, with a clear incompetence in the American budget, which reminds us with the situation of the Soviet Union before it collapse, and this is what we expect, Allah-willing, in the government of Washington’s lions.”

“And, for that, the security agreement came as a protection to the American enemy, and the betrayal of those who signed it is clear, on top is the reconciliation front headed by the Islamic Party.”

“And, the big question remains: how did the Americans prepare for the danger resulting from their withdrawal from the direct fighting in cities?”

“First: the Iranian danger. The cross-caregiver realized that he lost his political battle with Iran, and he became convinced, although temporarily, that having the Iranian Persians participate in a piece of the pie is inevitable and the agreement was based accordingly as it was passed after an objection by Iran that required spaceship journeys by traitor Iraqi politicians, from all kinds of religious and racial sects, including the traitors of the reconciliation front, and the effect of this agreement appeared clearly when the American occupier took a decision to utilize his biggest pressing playing-card against Iran, and that being the mujahideen of Khulq; a practicing military group trained with Iranians, so after they took away their weapons and sanctioned them and told them with the necessity to leave Iraq, either to Iran who declared a full pardon if they went back there, based on the American agreement, or to other countries. And, based on that the European justice court declared its famous decision to drop Khulq Organization from the list of terrorism organizations in the world, and this appeared clearly in the tone of the calm White House politicians regarding the crisis of the Iranian elections, while the voice of the British was stronger after they left the neck of ambushing in Basra and their early escape, and the agreement led to real fears in Arab countries who were creative in their hostility towards the Persians as graciousness to the American masters, and this required the secretary of state to carry out trips to these countries.”

“Second: the danger of the Islamic State of Iraq and her allies in the shadow of any change in the security status, especially after the clear uncommonness of the traitor and cooperative groups. And everyone must know that the real and almost only danger America fears and does not ever want to witness is the domination of the Islamic State again on the ruling of Iraq and back to full control, as nothing but Islam is feared by the West, and its religiousness threatens their structure and existence. And, it is impossible to negotiate with them and reach mid-solutions, and so America and her allies prepared for the second choice in the countries surrounding our country, and this choice is only in cases of major collapse, and the escape of the Green Zone bandits and their allies away from the traitors of reconciliation, headed by the Islamic Party.”

“The game of making leaders and masters is very well-played by the West, and many times it has been used and proved big efficiency, as [for example] a leader goes into exile after chasing after him, then he comes back after pressures and demand by the crowds to take care [back] of the affairs. This is what goes on today regarding an alternative, while on the verge of collapse. This started as a thoroughly-American step, then a rejectionist in approach, then locally productive, as we and everyone saw and wondered about the images of this or that person distributed and hung atop bridges, below, it read ‘Wanted by the American Forces’ next to the image of al-Zarqawi, may Allah have mercy on him, then they open their houses to meet delegations and they provide feasts and then they talk about the honors of the mujahideen, and a few meters away the American forces stand still; seeking their arrest, and then bombed tens of houses until al-Zarqawi was killed.”

“Then the game grew, and the industry excelled in accuracy and trickery, so the “exile play” was prepared under the so-called title of ‘wanted for arrest,’ and in the exile the gates opened to ‘provide the honesty of words and truth’ to the ‘loving’ crowds! The satellite channels were established with high costs and preparations, which some countries fail to even establish one, so imagine more than one [channel]! And, the channels started airing the heroism of leaders and their historic glories and their steadfastness in heroic stances, while disfiguring the images of true men of Jihad in the battlefield, and viewing them as politically stupid, media idiots, and battlefield murderers, and that they seek to dismantle the country and kill people. Then the channels rushed to bless the words of the leaders; delusional names for group invented by imagination, mixed with field facts, exactly like priests: one fact with a hundred lies. And suddenly and quickly heroism stances of some groups appeared, and armies named al-Karrar, al-Jarrar, and al-Battar.”

[Two lines of Poetry]

“Then, the real as well as the fake [groups] blessed the new leaders in a play to circulate the Islamic State of Iraq, with a claim that it only represents ten percent of Jihad and does not have a political agenda, also according to their lies it [ISI] is despised socially as if they had from space. And, the marketing of this idea in the media began, moving towards [achieving] it in the field, in preparation to the upcoming day of change, with the blood of the honest people of the Islamic State in this country.”

“And, so in the recent period a lie has been frequently mentioned, believed [only] by those who try to market it, its summary is that Jihad in Iraq does not have a political agenda neither does it have a real front that represents them! We only say: Allah is our considerer and the best of protectors; you have presented those who Allah professed graciousness and solidification for, as the most stupid people, and alienated them from understanding the correctness of their Jihad [Verse].”

“Allah has taken the responsibility to guide the people in trenches towards the path of truthfulness in life and afterlife, as their Jihad, for clear goals and apparent agenda repeated by their young and elder, to make the words of Allah the highest and those who disbelieved [in] Him, the lowest. This is our political project and main goal, and that is why we announced the State of Islam in the land of Rafidain (Iraq).”

“And, O so amazing people; those who held up the symbol of secularism with the name of democracy, and demanding the return of Ba'th [Party] a political project? And, the Islamic State of Iraq is not a political project?”

“Is falling in the lab of the Syrian Ba'th [party] and the Christian ruling, and appearing on their satellite channels a political project? And, the Islamic State of Iraq isn't a political project?”

“Is sitting in hotels belonging to the Jews' cooperative and the son of betrayal, the son of [King] Hussein in Jordan, a political project? And the Islamic State of Iraq is not a political project?”

“Is betrayal in the intelligence [Mukhabarat] rooms of Omar Suleiman in Egypt, and pleading to those who kill our people in Gaza, a political project? And, the Islamic State of Iraq not a political project?”

“Then, O people tell me: who are the mujahideen's interface? Is it he who never had a dusty foot for the cause of Allah or fought the occupiers has the right to be in the interface of mujahideen? And, he who left Iraq and his [own] family for long years, and did not wipe out their tears and medicate their wound and defend their honors, has the right to be the interface of the mujahideen?”

“Then, O people tell me: did Iraq open up and welcome Abu Musab az-Zarqawi and Abu Qussura al-Maghrebi and Abu Usama al-Tunissi and Abu Dujanah al-Yemeni until then died among Iraq's men defending its women's honors, and still has room for many, many more muhajireen (immigrants) today, and did not have room for al-Shammri, al-Junabi, and al-Daleemi? O how far you are away from fairness!”

“Did Allah's messenger, prayer and peace upon him, leave al-Medina to a secure place, with an excuse about the Jewish plot and hoaxes of the Mushrikeen (polytheists), or did he sit in a state of fear, without sleeping at night, guarding himself one time and another time his companions guarding him, digging the trench, and the armies moving forward; holding his stomach from hunger, or is it when time changes the Sharia and laws get changed?”

[Hadeeth]

“Aren't the countries they plead for today and seek to every crumb thrown to them of government and political ambitions, are the same countries they first participated in sanctioning Iraq until children died and its power was exhausted, and then are these the same countries that participated directly in occupying Iraq from crusaders? Didn't Egypt open the Suez Canal in front of American battleships, crawling to destroy the country and the people? Didn't the crusader jets take off from Saudi Arabia to bomb Iraq? Didn't the crusader armies enter through Jordan to the H3 Western region?”

“Wasn't Kuwait and still is the biggest camp and crawling region towards Iraq, to destroy its people and annihilate its harvest and ancestry? Tell me about the secret that made those suddenly flip and become merciful fair executors of our country and people and their own families themselves? Tell me what is the secret that made the Kuwaiti National Assembly demand to make a certain group a representative of mujahideen? How suddenly who shouted to kill our families and destroy our country become a care-taker and protector of the religion's banner?”

“Today we witness the biggest robbery in the history of our Jihad in al-Rafidain; we witness the formation of awakening groups in their new image and a birth of an evil Satan, in the same structure of the Palestinian Liberation Organization, to liquidate the [Iraqi] case and waste the blood of martyrs. And, we tell those people, go back to your coherence and redeem yourself to your creator, we do not like to oppress you but we [only] love righteousness for you in life and afterlife, and no goodness is better than redemption to Allah and going back to the ranks of Jihad and mujahideen, and leaving Shirk [polytheism] and Mushrikeen [polytheists] behind.”

“Listen to us carefully O people: the time of nationalism and tribalism and Bathism, and their indoctrinators, have gone, without a comeback Allah-willing, and we consider this time is for the couriers of "No God but Allah" banner, and you have seen that our enemies; as much as the greed of their ambitions, and the intensity of their hostility towards each other, they have been grouped by their corrupt beliefs, so why can't we group with our pure belief, having no ambition but the ruling of Allah on His Earth, guided by the approach of the Salaf Saleh (the fine ancestors).”

“Hizb al-Dawa (al-Dawa Party)—al-Mahdi Army, it is a three-approach [belief]—so, put your hands in there because the three-approach rejectionist ruler in Baghdad, Failaq Badr (Badr Legion) is dangerous and was raised in the labs of the Khomeini revolutionary rejectionist schools, and those carry hostility and grudge towards everything Sunni first, and Arabic second, and the years of the Iraqi-Iranian war years and the official support to the mortal regime were dedicated for it, and this man came to governance with a dangerous plan that carries a strategic far goal that can only be reached by tactical progress goals.”

“Regarding their main goal that which they strongly seek after is to make Iraq a rejectionist state, and will be racial and religious minorities living within aside from Iran, and they seek that with all kinds of tricks, schemes and plots, which made the Persians infamous throughout their history, and that also signifies the Magus Iranian political knowledge today. The understanding of Shiite governance was spread to our country through many cases, and as a few days ago al-Qabanshi declared: 'Iraq will not be ruled except by the Shiites!' So they accepted the scheme of what they call compatible democracy, which allows a piece of its back to their opponents and that is to spread the tyrannical credibility of law upon the current ruling system first, and upon instilling infrastructure for the occupation's existence second, and unfortunately the Sunni scums and tribe's idiots rushed to take the trap and fall in the trap of the political process, and they believed the lie of democracy so when the rejectionists comeback intensifies and they solidified the pillars of their governance with a rejectionist army and criminal mercenary police, and tens of militias and gangs that operate for the ruling parties, and with all the current legal methods necessary, they worked with all kinds of ways to weaken the people of Sunnah and they fought them with the wicked project of the awakenings, so when they thought they become victorious, they turned to their companions in politics and government; some Sunni traitors, and they exported their pride and freedom and in various constitutional methods, which they agreed upon and participated in feeding it to the nation, so they dropped the immunity from the Sunni Parliament representatives one after another, so Abd al-Nasser al-Janabi escaped, and he was from of the participating committee in writing the constitution, and al-Daimi escaped, and these days an arrest warrant was issued for Hassan Deeghan and also for Mahmoud al-Mash-hadani. And, there is a serious project to drop the immunity from Adnan al-Dalimi and another number of Sunni representatives in the Parliament. And, the goal of the rejectionists from that is to make the Sunni participation in the political process from now on look like wax theater puppets, moved by Magus hands in Qumm and al-Najaf as tens of accusations and cases are ready to be framed and accompanied with witnessed against all those who least oppose them, even if he was in actuality a loyal dog in the name of democracy and law, exactly how their masters do in Tehran against the people of Sunna of Buloosh, Kurds and Persians.”

“And consider the play of arresting a poor servant and what they have accused their opponents, as the rejectionists are the biggest liars and most believing in lies, as said by the sheikh of Islam Ibn Taimia, may Allah have mercy on him. And so the Sunni traitor politician benefactors realized this reality; that there is no remainder for them next to the ruling chair except if they make sacrifices in front of al-Khomeini’s memorial so they rushed to grace Iran, and so rudely and honestly the representative from the reconciliation and the Islamic Party Omar Abd al-sattar al-Karbouli declared that they, at the Islamic Party, have official and unofficial meetings with the Iranian Republic’s leadership. The official one we [already] got to know or they taught it to us, betrayal and handing off the country and people in the name of politics, may the politicians of the reconciliation tell us what do they mean by unofficial? Is it other than spying and betrayal for the benefit of Iran?”

“And, the dogs of the awakenings connected with the convoy; the convoy of betrayal; those who couldn’t wait to hum that their gang is fighting the cooperatives of Iran, so the Sattelite channels of al-Sharqa declared the safe return of the leader Hamid al-Hayess to homeland from a visit to Tehran where he presented the sacrifices of loyalty and obedience, knowing that the mentioned above does not occupy any official ranking.”

“The bottom line is that the three-approach rejectionist ruler in Baghdad wants to hold the executive, legislative and judicial branches, allowing a weak unofficial participation of racial and religious minorities, as they claim in the political process, in preparation for completing the rejectionist tape from Tehran to Beirut. Even the complete Sunni areas in al-Anbar, Mosel, and Kirkuk have witnessed the arrival of their wicked ambitions.”

“So, demand the inclusion of al-Nakheeb to the governorate of Karbala under the claim of investment in the heart of the desert, while the city of Karbala drowns in the seas of darkness and sewage.”

“Regarding the ambitions of the rejectionists and the Kurds in Mosel, al-Hadba’, and Kirkuk, they became very clear. Al-Maliki and Adel Abd al-Mahdi showed their sympathy and agreement towards the demands of the rejectionists in Tel-afr and al-Dooz as two rejectionist governorates, after splitting them from al-Hadba’ and Kirkuk, while they used to be in the endearment of the Islamic State, and pleading to live in Tel-afr a safe living under our authority. Also the Kurds demanded the split of Sinjar and Shikhan and included in their new constitution the whole of Kirkuk and parts of Diala and Salah ad-Deen.”

“So, tell me by your Lord O Sunna people: what has left for us of land and pride in the shadow if traitor politicians that represent you and trade your blood?”

“Our honors have been choked by the magus rejectionist government and its allies of participants in ruling and injustice, and in the recent period the crimes of police forces and guards against the people of Sunna have increased, and with a gradual strange increasing level that included all the Sunni areas, and heard and witnessed by the heads of Sunni governorates and police chiefs who belong to the reconciliation front and the Islamic Party, so the period of Ma’moon and Sami al-

Alwani and the former governor of al-Anbar and main member in the Islamic Party witnessed a dangerous and grand violation of the honor and purity of our mothers, daughters and sisters in that governorate without any deterrence or punishment to any criminal. Those from the police of Hadeetha and al-Ramadi who raped the pure women are still free. Even in Fallujah one of the biggest police chiefs raped a free Muslim woman from the people in the city after he drugged her and he was video-taped by another detective, and in gazing in criminality they distributed the tape in the city if mosques in which the picture of the victim and the perpetrator are clear. Despite that Ma'moon did not take any procedure against the police chief in the city, or any other authority forces who belong to the Islamic Party."

"The people of Fallujah faced a status of oppression that prevented them from detesting those who violated their honors and wasted their pride and spreading that amongst people. After the second set of battles in al-Fallujah the rejectionist soldiers wrote on the walls of the city 'Today you homes, and tomorrow your honors,' and in practice the magus executed their promise on the hands of the Islamic Party police and the reconciliation front. Is this really the city that had raised the banner of Jihad and drew the lines of the best example in sacrifice and heroism, and did not bow to the might of the crusader occupier and allies? Is this the city that had a mixture of martyrs' blood with Muhajireen (immigrants) and Ansar (supporters)?"

"O people of Fallujah, you used to sleep safely in your homes, secure with your honors while the lions in the trenches and holes under the heat of the sun and the heat of the missiles, guarding you from your enemy in al-Sina'a, al-Na'imeyya, al-Joulan and Jbeil, so why have you exchanged the lions with foxes to protect your honors?"

"You have been our people, and honor, so what occurred towards you from us but sacrifice for the cause of Allah and glorifying the words of Allah?"

"But, in the city of Tikrit, the police chief himself raped two girls from his own tribe al-Jabour, and with the help of big detectives, and the scent of the news exploded, and the criminals are still free until this day in the shadow of Mtasher governance, governor of Salah ad-deen, and he is a main member of the Islamic Party and the reconciliation front.."

"And, in Diala, let's speak honestly, especially after the vicious American rejectionist campaigns against the lions of Diala, as everyone knows the role of the reconciliation front in this campaign, and they used to be and still the best of assistance for the rejectionists who started watering the people of Sunna from the cup of death, and violating honors exceeded the limits of description. So, I call upon all women under fifty years old to keep away from visiting their families in rejectionist and American prisons and detentions everywhere, enough is what happened and happens during visitation of suppression, and our oath is to see our blood running under the prisons' walls until you see your families free."

[2 poetry lines]

"We are not amongst those who cry and sit like women. This wasn't and will never be our path, and our blood are sacrifice in protection of those religion and honor."

[1 poetry line]

"O youth of Islam and heroes of its kind country, rise up against the enemies of Allah, the traitors, like the uprising of a hungry lion. Do not be discouraged from you goals by the wounds, and put down the weapon from your shoulders."

[2 poetry lines]

"Stab the necks of the traitor Allah's enemies with the swords, and raise the motivation with the beauty of your deeds and the power of your attacks."

“Purify Earth from the traitors and the agents of the rejectionists.”

“Pour your blood in sacrifice for the cause of Allah, then in defense of the pure free honors of women.”

[1 poetry line]

“They are certainly in extinction, and they are more ruthless to stand in front of you for [just] an hour, so do not be intrigued by the dogs barks and wolves roar and the sounds of whips; bravery for them is just a cargo.”

“Pressure them and you will find your Lord’s rewards and His kind angels’ support as they are of help to those who are patient and steadfast not to those who feared and ran away. It is a duty on every Muslim—who gives Allah His deserved right and who glorifies Allah’s religion and Sharia—to sacrifice himself for the cause of Allah.”

“Stick together in your Jihad, and get closer and unite with each other, and be aware of disputes and grudge.”

[1 poetry line]

[Verse]

“Give your hands to every Muslim who wishes goodness for the countries and the people, regardless of his sins and mistakes as long as they are not contradictory to the faith.”

[2 poetry lines]

“And, O Muslims and Muhajireen, know that Allah’s religion has honored and endeared you, and has protected the honors of pure female Muslims; an obligation without which your blood will be shed, so endearment is by protecting the religion and honor.”
