

Islamic State of Iraq: “Regarding the Blessed Raid of the Prisoner”

October 26, 2009

Islamic State of Iraq: “Regarding the Blessed Raid of the Prisoner” Released: October 26, 2009

[This document is the transcript of an Arabic-language statement obtained and translated by NEFA investigators on behalf of the NEFA TerrorWatch subscription service. This transcript is provided for educational and informational purposes only.]

[Prayer]

“Praised be Allah, prayer and peace upon Allah’s apostle and upon his dynasty, his companions and those who followed. And to proceed:”

“Regarding the blessed raid of the prisoner, which was carried out by the sons of the second state of Islam, which is part of the ‘good harvest’ plan; the battalions of the Mujahidin in Baghdad had struck once again.”

“A group of Martyrs, who were rewarded by the sale with the Lord of the Heavens and the Earth, were the first ones [among the battalions of the Mujahidin]. They targeted the strongholds of infidelity and the rejectionist’s elements on the lands of the Caliphate. One of the selected targets that was chosen this time was the ministry of evil and exploitation, the ‘ministry of justice’, and the other one was Baghdad’s provincial council, the ‘legislative council of the local government of Baghdad’. By that, they [the Mujahidin] pulled away the curtain on the criminals of this beautiful area, and ended the numerous lies that instilled hope in them, after the blessed raid of Shaaban 4th. This fighting group stood in front of the enemy during this day once again, and [just as they do] every day. He [the enemy] understands nothing but the language of power, and hears nothing but steps of heavy boots, which are deafening him, and rock the fortress of apostates and the thrones of Ridda [apostasy in Islam].”

“Regarding you, Ho, the farthest one; regarding you, the Muslims in dear Palestine, I swear, we have never forgotten you and we will never forget you. A country which waves the flag of oneness and the law of Allah is not good if its sons are sleeping, and not reaching out their hand [to help]. We believe that the salvation of Jerusalem [the temple] will not happen until the thrones of the devils and the watchdogs that are surrounding the Jewish country on the land of the point of departure for Muhammad’s midnight journey to the seventh Heaven will be defeated. It is only up to almighty Allah.”

“With our little supporters and many enemies who are lurking around us, we are glad to tell you, our brothers in this religion and the ones who carry out Ribat in the blessed land of pilgrimage, what the prophet, peace and prayer upon him, told his companions on the day the Ahzab attacked them, while he tied a stone on his stomach: (Allah is the greatest, had given the keys to Al-Shaam, and I am patient now [in front] of the castles that are in it, from this place of mine).”

“This history is stained with the blood of the loyal ones, who followed the last prophet, and is paved, with the skulls of the righteous and the bodies of the loyal. It will never stop, Insha Allah, even if others pray at the point of departure for to the midnight journey to the seventh heavens of the prophet of war and mercy, peace and prayer upon him. We wish it will happen soon.”

“Do not be defrauded by the ones who betrayed the [Islamic] religion and in this issue, sold and gave his religion, and turned the Al-Aqsa issue into a virgin that is being displayed to two groups in a slaves market, while one [group] is apostate, atheist and secular, and the other one is hypocrite, tempting and evil.”

“Oh, our man, know for sure: indeed, what was taken from the Muslims by the armies on the land, the group of planes in the skies and the boats on the seas will not bring statements of condemnation or denunciation, and neither the mercies of the criminal devils, or the support of their international apostate organizations, or national decisions, or connection to the council of human ‘rights’.”

“Almighty Allah has said:”

[Prayer]