"On November 27 special operation group derailed the 'Nevsky Express' train, which was heading from St. Petersburg to Moscow, and which is mainly used by Rusnya's (AKA Russia) leading officials. As a result of erosion several carriages were destroyed or damaged, over 30 people killed and at least 80 people injured."

"Initially, authorities of Rusnya stated that the reason for which the train derailed, was another 'accident', but after the crater from the blast became public, the leadership of Rusnya was forced to acknowledge the fact that it was operation."

"The final dispel of false doubts was the second explosion, which occurred after the undermining of the main bomb, which almost blew up the head of the Investigation Committee under the Prosecutor's Office Bastrykin."

"Despite all these facts, the infidels still prefer to write about 'a possible accident', while being forced to recognizing that the main version is a diversion operation."

"We declare that this operation was prepared and carried out within the planned, early this year, and successfully carried out acts of sabotage on a number of strategically important objects of Rusnya, pursuant to the order of the Emir of Caucasus Emirate Dokka Umarov."

"As previously repeatedly warned, in the spring Majlisul Shura by the command of the Caucasus Emirate, it was decided to transfer the sabotage war to the territories of Rusnya, along with strong blows to the occupiers' infrastructure in the Caucasus."

"Today, we carry out sabotage operations on electricity transmission lines, oil-and gas-wires. Many of the operations are under preparation status."

"We declare that we will do everything possible to spread Jihad even greater in the territory of Rusnya to undermine its economy, so that Rusnya will not have the opportunity to use the Caucasus as its raw material base."

"We have long been accustomed to the fact that as a result of such operations, Mujahideen are 'accused' in a war against 'civilians' of Rusnya, but we intend to conduct such diversions in future, which are the just acts of vengeance."

“These diversions will continue for as long as the occupants in the Caucasus will not stop its policy of killing ordinary Muslims purely on religious grounds.”

“We also consider the population of Rusnya as accomplices of Russia’s government, which supports by its approval the bloody policy of occupation of the Caucasus and the brutal killings of peaceful Muslims whose only fault is their desire to keep at least basic norms of Islam.”

“But even despite this, by the order of our Emir Dokka Abu Usman, we will try to avoid casualties among the unarmed population of Rusnya, and will not consider them as a primary objective for operations.”

“In this year by the command of the Mujahideen, several intelligence-sabotage units were trained and sent deep into Rusnya to conduct operations on enemy’s territory. As a result, and the consequences of these operations have caused enormous economic damage to Rusna, we will continue to work in this direction.”

“We warn the leadership of Rusnya that unless they stop the killing of innocent Muslims of the Caucasus Emirate, and unless they terminate the activities of the ‘death squads’, we reserve the right to conduct appropriate military operations against the ‘civilian’ population of Rusnya.”

“And sufficient is for us what Allah Almighty said in the Quran: ‘And fight against them as they fight against you.’”
